GOD'S INFINITE GRACE

No man can of himself understand his errors. 'The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it?' Jeremiah 17:9. The lips may express a poverty of soul that the heart does not acknowledge. While speaking to God of poverty of spirit, the heart may be swelling with the conceit of its own superior humility and exalted righteousness. In one way only can a true knowledge of self be obtained. We must behold Christ. It is ignorance of Him that makes men so uplifted in their own righteousness. When we contemplate His purity and excellence, we shall see our own weakness and poverty and defects as they really are. We shall see ourselves lost and hopeless, clad in garments of self-righteousness, like every other sinner. We shall see that if we are ever saved, it will not be through our own goodness, but through God's infinite grace.

"The prayer of the publican was heard because it showed dependence reaching forth to lay hold upon Omnipotence. Self to the publican appeared nothing but shame. Thus it must be seen by all who seek God. By faith—faith that renounces all self-trust—
"No outward observances can take the place of simple faith and entire renunciation of self. But no man can empty himself of self. We can only consent for Christ to accomplish the work. Then the language of the soul will be, Lord, take my heart; for I cannot give it. It is Thy property. Keep it pure, for I cannot keep it for Thee. Save me in spite of myself, my weak, unchristlike self. Mold me, fashion me, raise me into a pure and holy atmosphere, where the rich current of Thy love can flow through my soul." Christ's Object Lessons, 159.

MISSION STATEMENT

The ministry of Future for America is to proclaim the final warning message of Revelation 14 as identified within the prophecies of the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy. The end-time fulfillment of Bible prophecy is no longer future—for it is taking place before our eyes. The historic, prophetic understanding of Seventh-day Adventism is now present truth. We are the final generation. Our emphasis on the prophetic word includes all the counsel of God's Word. To know what lies ahead is useless if we do not possess the experience to stand during these solemn times. Through obedience to God's law, and faith in the promises of God's Word, we are to receive that experience.

Coupled with the prophetic message, Future for America emphasizes all aspects of the medical missionary work. The "entering wedge"—medical missionary work—must be practiced by those who are to finish God's work in these final hours.

During this time period, country living becomes more essential with each passing moment. Future for America upholds and promotes this end-time truth. God's people must prepare for the coming storm, and that preparation includes the experience of learning how to survive in a simple fashion, away from the great centers of population.

Attitude to New Light

By Ellen G. White

“Maintaining Truth Not to Preclude New Light.—It is a fact that we have the truth, and we must hold with tenacity to the positions that cannot be shaken; but we must not look with suspicion upon any new light which God may send, and say, Really, we cannot see that we need any more light than the old truth which we have hitherto received, and in which we are settled. While we hold to this position, the testimony of the True Witness applies to our cases its rebuke, ‘And knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.’ Those who feel rich and increased with goods and in need of nothing, are in a condition of blindness as to their true condition before God, and they know it not.

“Led of God, but Not Infallible.—We must not think, ‘Well, we have all the truth, we understand the main pillars of our faith, and we may rest on this knowledge.’ The truth is an advancing truth, and we must walk in the increasing light.

“A brother asked, ‘Sister White, do you think we must understand the truth for ourselves? Why can we not take the truths that others have gathered together, and believe them because they have investigated the subjects, and then we shall be free to go on without the taxing of the powers of the mind in the investigation of all these subjects? Do you not think that these men who have brought out the truth in the past were inspired of God?’

“I dare not say they were not led of God, for Christ leads into all truth; but when it comes to inspiration in the fullest sense of the word, I answer, No. I believe that God has given them a work to do, but if they are not fully consecrated to God at all times, they will weave self and their peculiar traits of character into what they are doing, and will put their mold upon the work, and fashion men in religious experience after their own pattern. It is dangerous for us to make flesh our arm. We should lean upon the arm of Infinite Power. God has been revealing this to us for years. We must have living faith in our hearts and reach out for larger knowledge and more advanced light.

“Increased Light to Shine.—A spirit of pharisaism has been coming in upon the people who claim to believe the truth for these last days. They are self-satisfied. They have said, ‘We have the truth. There is no more light for the people of God.’ But we are not safe when we take a position that we will not accept anything else than that upon which we have settled as truth. We should take the Bible, and investigate it closely for ourselves. We should dig in the mine of God’s word for truth. ‘Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.’ Some have asked me if I thought there was any more light for the people of God. Our minds have become so narrow that we do not seem to understand that the Lord has a mighty work to do for us. Increasing light is to shine upon us; for ‘the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.’

“Many Gems Yet to Be Discovered.—New light will ever be revealed on the word of God to him who is in living connection with the Sun of Righteousness. Let no one come to the conclusion that there is no more truth to be revealed. The diligent, prayerful seeker for truth will find precious rays of light yet to shine forth from the word of God. Many gems are yet scattered that are to be gathered together to become the property of the remnant people of God.

“Investigation of Doctrine.—There is no excuse for anyone in taking the position that there is no more truth to be revealed, and that all our expositions of Scripture are without an error. The fact that certain doctrines have been held as truth for many years by our people, is not a proof that our ideas are infallible. Age will not make error into truth, and truth can afford to be fair. No true doctrine will lose anything by close investigation.

“We are living in perilous times, and it does not become us to accept everything claimed to be truth without examining it thoroughly; neither can we afford to reject anything that bears the fruits of the Spirit of God; but we should be teachable, meek and lowly of heart. There are those who oppose everything that is not in accordance with their own ideas, and by so doing they endanger their eternal interest as verily as did the Jewish nation in their rejection of Christ.

“The Lord designs that our opinions shall be put to the test, that we may see the necessity of closely examining the living oracles to see whether or not we are in the faith. Many who claim to believe the truth have settled down at their ease, saying, ‘I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing.’

“How to Search the Scriptures.—How shall we search the Scriptures? Shall we drive our stakes of doctrine one after another, and then try to make all Scripture meet our established opinions? or shall we take our ideas and views to the Scriptures, and measure our theories on every side by the Scriptures of truth? Many who read and even teach the Bible, do not comprehend the precious truth they are teaching or studying.

“Men entertain errors, when the truth is clearly marked out; and if they would but bring their doctrines to the word of God, and not read the word of God in the light of their doctrines, to prove their ideas right, they would not walk in darkness and blindness, or cherish error. Many give the words of Scripture a meaning that suits their own opinions, and they mislead themselves and deceive others by their misinterpretations of God’s word.

“As we take up the study of God’s word, we should do so with humble hearts. All selfishness, all love of originality, should be laid aside. Long-cherished opinions must not be regarded as infallible. It was the unwillingness of the Jews to give up their long-established traditions that proved their ruin. They were determined not to see any flaw in their own opinions or in their expositions of the Scriptures; but however long men may have entertained certain views, if they are not clearly sustained by the written word, they should be discarded. Those who sincerely desire truth will not be reluctant to lay open their positions for investigation and criticism, and will not be annoyed if their opinions and ideas are crossed. This was the spirit cherished among us forty years ago. . . .

“We have many lessons to learn, and many, many to unlearn. God and heaven alone are infallible. Those who think that they will never have to give up a cherished view, never have occasion to change an opinion, will be disappointed. As long as we hold to our own ideas and opinions with determined persistency, we cannot have the unity for which Christ prayed.”

“Could those who are self-sufficient see how the universe of God regards them, could they see themselves as God sees them, they would behold such weakness, such manifest want of wisdom, that they would cry to the Lord to be their righteousness; they would want to hide from His sight. The apostle says, 'Ye are not your own. For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.' When our schemes and our plans have been broken; when men who have depended upon our judgment conclude the Lord would lead them to act and judge for themselves, we should not feel like censuring, and like exercising arbitrary authority to compel them to receive our ideas. Those who are placed in authority should constantly cultivate self-control. . . .

"Would-be Guardians of the Doctrine.—The rebuke of the Lord will be upon those who would be guardians of the doctrine, who would bar the way that greater light shall not come to the people. A great work is to be done, and God sees that our leading men have need of greater light, that they may unite harmoniously, with the messengers whom He shall send to accomplish the work that He designs they should. The Lord has raised up messengers and endued them with His Spirit, and has said, 'Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show My people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.'

"Let no one run the risk of interposing himself between the people and the message of heaven. The message of God will come to the people; and if there were no voice among men to give it, the very stones would cry out. I call upon every minister to seek the Lord, to put away pride, to put away strife after supremacy, and humble the heart before God. It is the coldness of heart, the unbelief of those who ought to have faith, that keeps the churches in feebleness.

"A Sign of Growth.—Whenever the people of God are growing in grace, they will be constantly obtaining a clearer understanding of His word. They will discern new light and beauty in its sacred truths. This has been true in the history of the church in all ages, and thus it will continue to the end. But as real spiritual life declines, it has ever been the tendency to cease to advance in the knowledge of the truth. Men rest satisfied with the light already received from God's word, and discourage any further investigation of the Scriptures. They become conservative, and seek to avoid discussion.

"The fact that there is no controversy or agitation among God's people, should not be regarded as conclusive evidence that they are holding fast to sound doctrine. There is reason to fear that they may not be clearly discriminating between truth and error. When no new questions are started by investigation of the Scriptures, when no difference of opinion arises which will set men to searching the Bible for themselves, to make sure that they have the truth, there will be many now, as in ancient times, who will hold to tradition, and worship they know not what.

"I have been shown that many who profess to have a knowledge of present truth, know not what they believe. They do not understand the evidences of their faith. They have no just appreciation of the work for the present time. When the time of trial shall come, there are men now preaching to others, who will find, upon examining the positions they hold, that there are many things for which they can give no satisfactory reason. Until thus tested, they knew not their great ignorance.

“And there are many in the church who take it for granted that they understand what they believe, but, until controversy arises, they do not know their own weakness. When separated from those of like faith, and compelled to stand singly and alone to explain their belief, they will be surprised to see how confused are their ideas of what they had accepted as truth. Certain it is that there has been among us a departure from the living God, and a turning to men, putting human wisdom in place of divine.

“God will arouse His people; if other means fail, heresies will come in among them, which will sift them, separating the chaff from the wheat. The Lord calls upon all who believe His word to awake out of sleep. Precious light has come, appropriate for this time. It is Bible truth, showing the perils that are right upon us. This light should lead us to a diligent study of the Scriptures, and a most critical examination of the positions which we hold.

“God would have all the bearings and positions of truth thoroughly and perseveringly searched, with prayer and fasting. Believers are not to rest in suppositions and ill-defined ideas of what constitutes truth. Their faith must be firmly founded upon the word of God, so that when the testing time shall come, and they are brought before councils to answer for their faith, they may be able to give a reason for the hope that is in them, with meekness and fear.

“Agitate, agitate, agitate! The subjects which we present to the world must be to us a living reality. It is important that in defending the doctrines which we consider fundamental articles of faith, we should never allow ourselves to employ arguments that are not wholly sound. These may avail to silence an opposer, but they do not honor the truth. We should present sound arguments, that will not only silence our opponents, but will bear the closest and most searching scrutiny. . . .

“Continual Search for Greater Light.—Whatever may be man’s intellectual advancement, let him not for a moment think that there is no need of thorough and continuous searching of the Scriptures for greater light. As a people, we are called individually to be students of prophecy. We must watch with earnestness that we may discern any ray of light which God shall present to us. We are to catch the first gleamings of truth; and through prayerful study, clearer light may be obtained, which can be brought before others.

“When God’s people are at ease, and satisfied with their present enlightenment, we may be sure that He will not favor them. It is His will that they should be ever moving forward, to receive the increased and ever-increasing light which is shining for them.

“The present attitude of the church is not pleasing to God. There has come in a self-confidence that has led them to feel no necessity for more truth and greater light. We are living at a time when Satan is at work on the right hand and on the left, before and behind us; and yet as a people we are asleep. God wills that a voice shall be heard arousing His people to action.

“Right Spirit Essential.—Brethren, we must sink the shaft deep in the mine of truth. You may question matters with yourselves and with one another, if you only do it in the right spirit; but too often self is large, and as soon as investigation begins, an unchristian spirit is manifested. This is just what Satan delights in, but we should come with a humble heart to know for ourselves what is truth.

“The time is coming when we shall be separated and scattered, and each one of us will have to stand without the privilege of communion with those of like precious faith; and how can you stand unless God is by your side, and you know that He is leading and guiding you? Whenever we come to investigate Bible truth, the Master of assemblies is with us. The Lord does not leave the ship one moment to be steered by ignorant pilots. We may receive our orders from the Captain of our salvation.”
Counsels to Writers and Editors, 42.

The Three Persecuting Powers—The Dragon, The False Prophet, The Beast By Roswell F. Cottrell

On Patmos lonely island the loved disciple saw

Three notable oppressors with saints proclaiming war;

The first, the great red dragon, with features fierce and rare,

The Pagan superstition erecting everywhere.

But after some few ages the dragons power grew weak,

His votaries forsook him, the living God to seek,

So feigned he too conversion, and lo, the beast arose,

With all his Papal terror, truths progress to oppose.

The ancient Pagan images, its doctrines and its laws,

Were now entitled Christian, to help his hellish cause;

Tw'as thus the wily serpent pursued his artful plan,

And ages upon ages the blood of martyrs ran.

But two and forty months was all the time allowed the beast,

And ere the period ended, so had his strength decreased,

His days of rule were shortened, his power to call for blood,

The earth had oped her mouth for saints and swallowed up the flood.

And yet there is another to act upon the stage,

Through whom the same old serpent will manifest his rage;

A beast which though he outwardly was lamb-like, fair and mild,

Spake like the Pagan dragon, ferocious, loud and wild.

Though all men are made equal, so holds he in his creed,

The slaves from out their bondage must nevermore be freed;

And though in things religious all men are to be free,

It means, when laws divine with human laws agree.

Once empires, thrones and kingdoms with Papacy made bold,

To slay the host of martyrs with cruelties untold;

But now a fair republic, a Protestant so mild,

Usurps the dangerous power, and with the same runs wild.

The old red Pagan dragon turned Papist on the day

He saw that Christian doctrines were like to bear the sway;

He seizes on the Scriptures and keeps them all unseen

And offers for a stipend to tell what they must mean.

At length from out its prison the Bible has been freed,
And loudly now is heralded as
Protestants sole creed;
The cry is now, The Bible, the Bible, that alone
Come drink from the pure fountain that flows from out the throne.

High hope is widely cherished, the Bible has been freed!
And now tis thought that Satan is overcome indeed
He sees that mere profession is but an azure gauze,
And lo, he now espouses with Protestants their cause.

The Bible, scattered broadcast, is laid upon the shelf.
And man is seldom met with who reads
it for himself,
And though some few, like Timothy, have read it from their youth,
Tradition still is followed instead of living truth.
The last great persecution is drawing on because
Some few will heed the Bible, and keep its righteous laws,
While others, the great masses
professing still the same,
Hold on to Papal errors and all their groundless claim.

The battle soon is coming, choose now while yet ye may,
The Bible and its precepts and Jesus to obey;
Soon closes up probation then will the dragon rage,
And battle with the remnant most cruel will he wage.

But short shall be the conflict, victorious
the saints,
Redeemed from all oppression, and freed from all complaints,
With shouts and songs celestial,
triumphant will they sing
The praises and the victories of Jesus Christ their King.

Prophecy School 2006

The latest prophecy school was recorded then packaged as individual sets. Hear the heart-stirring messages by Jeff Pippenger, Jamal Sankey, and Russell Williams as they expound truth found in the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation. Included in Jeff Pippenger's presentations are Millerite history, the three dispensations, the role of Islam in Bible prophecy, and the prophetic pattern. Jamal Sankey's studies cover many subjects encompassing the three tests, prophets of time, Daniel 11:40-45, and the scattering and gathering. Russell Williams brings to life, among many things, the little book of Daniel, prophetic mirrors, and antitypical roles in Bible prophecy. The format of these presentations allow for a thorough understanding prophecy whether purchased singly or as a group.

Prophecy Overview DVD's

By Jeff Pippenger

“As we near the close of this world’s history, the prophecies relating to the last days especially demand our study. The last book of the New Testament scriptures is full of truth that we need to understand. Satan has blinded the minds of many, so that they have been glad of any excuse for not making the Revelation their study. But Christ through His servant John has here declared what shall be in the last days, and He says, ‘Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein.’ Revelation 1:3.” Christ’s Object Lessons, 133.

The Washington meetings held at White Salmon and Diamond Lake are great material for first time listeners or as an overview preceding deeper study. White Salmon consists of 4 hours while Diamond Lake has 8 hours. The rules of prophecy are reviewed and examined fortifying the listener with means to build the foundations of truth.

Boise, Idaho & Blythe, California DVD Series

By Jeff Pippenger

“In this age the Lord is sending his servants with no ordinary message, but with special truths that must come before believers of every rank and tongue. Many of our church-members have never studied fully into the more sure word of prophecy, and do not understand the facts that have made us what we are. All should bring into exercise the powers of the intellect, that they may clearly understand the different phases of present truth, and especially the subjects of prophecy which were opened to us when the message of Christ’s soon coming was first heralded.” Review and Herald, April 2, 1908.

The Idaho meetings are a study of the repeats associated with the Millerite time period. The California meetings are a study connecting the 1843 chart to present day truth. While the sets are valuable in and of themselves, they are best when viewed as a whole unit. Each DVD set has the notes included on a reference cd for ease of copying and studying.

Prophecy School 2007

We are having a Prophecy School this July. It will be held from the 15th through the 22nd. For those of you who attended our 2004 school you will remember the Ozone, Arkansas camp. That is where we will be holding the 2007 school. We want to let everyone have plenty of notice and plan to run a more detailed description in the upcoming newsletters. For now, if you plan on joining us please call 1-888-278-7744, as we’ve already begun our attendance list. The dates are firm, although the specifics on speakers and other details are still being worked out. Our 2006 school was a rich blessing and we invite all who can to join us and meet together this July. Hope to see you there!

Time Prophets DVD

By Jeff Pippenger

“The message we have to bear is not a message that men need to cringe to declare. They are not to seek to cover it, to conceal its origin and purpose. Its advocates must be men who will not hold their peace day nor night. As those who have made solemn vows to God, and who have been commissioned as the messengers of Christ, as stewards of the mysteries of the grace of God, we are under obligation to declare faithfully the whole counsel of God. We are not to make less prominent the special truths that have separated us from the world and made us what we are; for they are fraught with eternal interests. God has given us light in regard to the things that are now taking place in the last remnant of time, and with pen and voice we are to proclaim the truth to the world, not in a tame, spiritless way, but in demonstration of the Spirit and power of God. The mightiest conflicts are involved in the furtherance of the message, and the results of its promulgation are of moment to both heaven and earth.” Life Sketches of Ellen G. White, 329.

This presentation introduces the concept of dispensational prophets and how our messenger for today, Ellen G. White, fits into God’s great plan of redemption. While, only one DVD, the message is powerful and not easily forgotten. Nice compliment for a Sabbath afternoon.

The Final Rise and Fall of the King of the North

By Jeff Pippenger

“But who reads the warnings given by the fast-fulfilling signs of the times? What impression is made upon worldlings? What change is seen in their attitude? No more than was seen in the attitude of the inhabitants of the Noachian world. Absorbed in worldly business and pleasure, the antediluvians ‘knew not until the Flood came, and took them all away.’ Matthew 24:39. They had heaven-sent warnings, but they refused to listen. And today the world, utterly regardless of the warning voice of God, is hurrying on to eternal ruin.

“The world is stirred with the spirit of war. The prophecy of the eleventh chapter of Daniel has nearly reached its complete fulfillment. Soon the scenes of trouble spoken of in the prophecies will take place.” Testimonies, volume 9, 14.

This study covers the last six verses of Daniel eleven. It demonstrates these verses to be present truth for our time. This may be considered the most important presentation by Jeff Pippenger.

Daniel 11:40-45

(40) And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

(41) He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many [countries] shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, [even] Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

(42) He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

(43) But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians [shall be] at his steps.

(44) But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

(45) And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

Revelation 16

By Jeff Pippenger

“The professed Christian world has had opportunity to obtain light and knowledge, but many close their eyes lest they shall see. Well-educated, intelligent men preach at the Word and round the Word, but they do not touch its inner meaning. They do not present truth in its genuine simplicity. These men, regarding themselves as authority, tell their hearers that it is not possible to understand either Daniel or the Revelation. Many ministers make no effort to explain the Revelation. They call it an unprofitable book to study. They look upon it as a sealed book, because it contains the truth in figures and symbols. But the very name that has been given to it ‘Revelation’ is a denial of their suppositions. The Revelation is a sealed book, but it is also an open book, recording marvelous events that are to take place in the last days of this earth’s history. Its teachings are definite, not mystical and unintelligible, and God would have us understand it.” Signs of the Times, January 11, 1899.

A study identifying the beast, the dragon, and false prophet of Revelation 16 as the three powers symbolized in Daniel 11:40-45. It shows how they are leading the world to Armageddon.

The Prophetic Pattern

By Jeff Pippenger

“The Old and New Testaments are linked together by the golden clasp of God. We need to become familiar with the Old-Testament Scriptures. The unchangeableness of God should be clearly seen; the similarity of his dealings with his people of the past dispensation and of the present, should be studied. Under the inspiration of the Spirit of God, Solomon wrote, ‘That which hath been is now: and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.’ In mercy God repeats his past dealings. He has given us a record of his dealings in the past. This we need to study carefully; for history is repeating itself. We are more accountable than were those whose experience is recorded in the Old Testament; for their mistakes, and the results of those mistakes, have been chronicled for our benefit.” Review and Herald, April 20, 1897.

A very important study identifying historical patterns in the Bible which illustrate what is just ahead.

The Daily

By Jeff Pippenger

“Then I saw in relation to the ‘daily’ (Daniel 8:12) that the word ‘sacrifice’ was supplied by man’s wisdom, and does not belong to the text, and that the Lord gave the correct view of it to those who gave the judgment hour cry. When union existed, before 1844, nearly all were united on the correct view of the ‘daily’; but in the confusion since 1844, other views have been embraced, and darkness and confusion have followed. Time has not been a test since 1844, and it will never again be a test.” Early Writings, 74.

This study upholds and defends the pioneer understanding of the “daily” in the book of Daniel, while applying that understanding to present fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Although this study is complete, it is also a part of a larger series called: The Prophetic Time Series.

God's Healing Way

By Mary Ann McNeilus

"God's Healing Way inspires us to look to God as the Great Healer and to value simple remedies as priceless. Just as a beam of light from heaven, coming through clouds, imparts not only beauty, but growth and healing; so God's healing power imparted to the sick sheds a golden influence on all around—the family, the community, and especially on these applying the simple remedies. God is the ultimate as well as the immediate source of all healing. Dr. McNeilus' experience in the practice of medicine is what gives strength to this most helpful study guide." Agatha M. Thrash, M.D.

The Purification of God's Church

By Jeff Pippenger

"The time is not far distant when the test will come to every soul. The mark of the beast will be urged upon us. Those who have step by step yielded to worldly demands and conformed to worldly customs will not find it a hard matter to yield to the powers that be, rather than subject themselves to derision, insult, threatened imprisonment, and death. The contest is between the commandments of God and the commandments of men. In this time the gold will be separated from the dross in the church. True godliness will be clearly distinguished from the appearance and tinsel of it. Many a star that we have admired for its brilliancy will then go out in darkness. Chaff like a cloud will be borne away on the wind, even from places where we see only floors of rich wheat. All who assume the ornaments of the sanctuary, but are not clothed with Christ's righteousness, will appear in the shame of their own nakedness." Testimonies, volume 5, 81.

This series identifies the Sunday law throughout Bible prophecy, while demonstrating that God's church is purified by the Sunday law crisis. This is a crucial study, which is largely unrecognized in Adventism today.

The Prophetic Time Series

By Jeff Pippenger

"The reasons why we are denominated people of God are to be repeated and repeated." Manuscript Releases, volume 8, 426.

This series is a combination of three separate presentations, which are closely related. The first four hours cover the "daily" in the book of Daniel. The next four hours address God's denominated people, while the last two hours deal with the reapplication of time prophecy.

Gideon's Torch

By Jeff Pippenger

"The Bible has accumulated and bound up together its treasures for this last generation. All the great events and solemn transactions of Old Testament history have been, and are, repeating themselves in the church in these last days." Selected Messages, book 3, 339.

The story of Gideon illustrates, in type, virtually every waymark of Adventism at the end of the world. This prophetic history is astounding.

The Crowning Act

By Jeff Pippenger

"This compromise between paganism and Christianity resulted in the development of the 'man of sin' foretold in prophecy as opposing and exalting himself above God. That gigantic system of false religion is a masterpiece of Satan's power,—a monument of his efforts to seat himself upon the throne to rule the earth according to his will." The Great Controversy, 50.

Satan has been preparing the Catholic Church to receive himself as Christ through the messages of Mary. This series compares false prophecies with the light of the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy, while noting the many parallels, though incorrect predictions. This is a significant study for God's people today.

Those Things Which Have Been, Will Be Repeated

By Jeff Pippenger

“The peculiar work of the third angel has not been seen in its importance. God meant that His people should be far in advance of the position which they occupy today. But now, when the time has come for them to spring into action, they have the preparation to make. When the National Reformers began to urge measures to restrict religious liberty, our leading men should have been alive to the situation and should have labored earnestly to counteract these efforts. It is not in the order of God that light has been kept from our people—the very present truth which they needed for this time. Not all our ministers who are giving the third angel’s message really understand what constitutes that message. The National Reform movement has been regarded by some as of so little importance that they have not thought it necessary to give much attention to it and have even felt that in so doing they would be giving time to questions distinct from the third angel’s message. May the Lord forgive our brethren for thus interpreting the very message for this time.” Testimonies, volume 5, 714.

This series looks to the Christian Right as a modern fulfillment of the National Reform Movement of Sister White’s day and age. The implications drawn from this series are solemn and alarming.

Messages to Young People— A Study Guide

Prepared By E. J. Dold

This is a practical study guide made to accompany the reader through Ellen G. White’s book, Messages to Young People. The book is also useful as resource material for teens and young adults as they learn to walk with God. The cover is soft and inside you will find easy to follow directions for your studies. We are discontinuing this item, so it is available only while supplies last. $10

The Overflowing Scourge

By Jeff Pippenger

“Then I was shown a company who were howling in agony. On their garments was written in large characters, ‘Thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting.’ I asked who this company were. The angel said, ‘These are they who have once kept the Sabbath and have given it up.’ I heard them cry with a loud voice, ‘We have believed in Thy coming, and taught it with energy.’ And while they were speaking, their eyes would fall upon their garments and see the writing, and then they would wail aloud. I saw that they had drunk of the deep waters, and fouled the residue with their feet—trodden the Sabbath underfoot—and that was why they were weighed in the balance and found wanting.” Early Writings, 36.

The “overflowing scourge” is a pronouncement of woe upon those in Adventism who find themselves unprepared for the seal of God when the Sunday law arrives. This is a sobering presentation.

Why Halt Ye Between Two Opinions

By

Jeff Pippenger & Elder Frank Hardy

A series of presentations by Jeff Pippenger, Elder Frank Hardy, and various other speakers recorded at the Lifestyle Center of America in Oklahoma during March of 2004. The purpose behind the meetings was to discuss and come to an understanding on the last six verses of Daniel 11. These videos have been discontinued and we are only offering the abbreviated version which highlights Jeff Pippenger, Ron Goss, and a few others without Elder Frank Hardy’s talks. There are 6 videos in the set and they are marked at half the normal price. The information is just as important to understand and follow today as it was in the spring of 2004. VHS set $15

The Judgment of the Living

By Jeff Pippenger

“The work of the Holy Spirit is to convince the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. The world can only be warned by seeing those who believe the truth sanctified through the truth, acting upon high and holy principles, showing in a high, elevated sense, the line of demarcation between those who keep the commandments of God, and those who trample them under their feet. The sanctification of the Spirit signalizes the difference between those who have the seal of God, and those who keep a spurious rest-day. When the test comes, it will be clearly shown what the mark of the beast is. It is the keeping of Sunday. Those who after having heard the truth, continue to regard this day as holy, bear the signature of the man of sin, who thought to change times and laws.” Bible Training School, December 1, 1903.

This presentation looks at the Sunday law as the tool the Lord uses to bring judgment to a close, as well as identifying both the Sunday law and the judgment as progressive.

Adventism’s Parable

By Jeff Pippenger

“The parable of the ten virgins was given by Christ Himself, and every specification should be carefully studied. A time will come when the door will be shut. We are represented either by the wise or the foolish virgins. We cannot now distinguish, nor have we authority to say, who are wise and who foolish. There are those who hold the truth in unrighteousness, and these appear outwardly like the wise.” Manuscript Releases, volume 16, 270.

This series upholds the understanding of Daniel 11:40-45 from a historical application of the fulfillment of the parable of the ten virgins in the pioneer time period. That history prefigures the final work of God’s people at the end of time, and one of the characteristics of that history, and the future fulfillment of the history is the role of a specific passage from Bible prophecy. This is the study which ideally follows the foundational study of The Final Rise and Fall of the King of the North.

What Shall Befall Thy People

By Jeff Pippenger

“Study the tenth chapter of Daniel, and mark particularly the fourteenth verse. ‘Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days’ (Daniel 10:14). When our brethren and ministers shall feel the burden that should rest upon them, they will not be content with a few surface truths. They will sink the shaft deep, and will have the spirit that Daniel possessed. There will be no frivolous spirit: no cheap, superficial sanctification, prated from unsanctified lips, and coming from hearts that are destitute of purity, of consecration and wholehearted surrender to God. There will be earnest prayer that the truth may be so indelibly stamped upon the heart, that the entire man may be brought, with all his ways, into conformity to the truth. ‘With the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation’ (Romans 10:10).” Manuscript Releases, volume 9, 365.

This study brings truth to the hearts of God’s people.

The Hour of Adventism’s Visitation

By Jeff Pippenger

“The crisis is fast approaching. The rapidly swelling figures show that the time for God’s visitation has about come. Although loath to punish, nevertheless He will punish, and that speedily. Those who walk in the light will see signs of the approaching peril; but they are not to sit in quiet, unconcerned expectancy of the ruin, comforting themselves with the belief that God will shelter His people in the day of visitation. Far from it. They should realize that it is their duty to labor diligently to save others, looking with strong faith to God for help. ‘The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.’” Testimonies, volume 5, 81.

Can we know the time of Adventism’s visitation? What are the signs that the time is approaching? What circumstances will appear within and without the Church? “...And they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.” Luke 19:44

1843 & 1850 Pioneer Charts

“September 23, the Lord showed me that He had stretched out His hand the second time to recover the remnant of His people, and that efforts must be redoubled in this gathering time. In the scattering, Israel was smitten and torn, but now in the gathering time God will heal and bind up His people. In the scattering, efforts made to spread the truth had but little effect, accomplished but little or nothing; but in the gathering, when God has set His hand to gather His people, efforts to spread the truth will have their designed effect. All should be united and zealous in the work. I saw that it was wrong for any to refer to the scattering for examples to govern us now in the gathering; for if God should do no more for us now than He did then, Israel would never be gathered. I have seen that the 1843 chart was directed by the hand of the Lord, and that it should not be altered; that the figures were as He wanted them; that His hand was over and hid a mistake in some of the figures, so that none could see it, until His hand was removed.” Early Writings, 74.

“I saw that God was in the publishment of the chart by Brother Nichols. I saw that there was a prophecy of this chart in the Bible, and if this chart is designed for God’s people, if it [is] sufficient for one it is for another, and if one needed a new chart painted on a larger scale, all need it just as much.” Manuscript Releases, volume 13, 359.

We stock attractive, facsimile, 1843 and 1850 charts. They are printed on 35" x 48" soft, vinyl cloth. The charts are easy to roll up for travel or storage purposes. Each chart has four brass grommets on the corners designed to hang conveniently in your home, office, or place of worship. Because of generous sizing, the charts are readable and ideal as a witnessing tool. Future for America uses the charts in meetings to the benefit of both speaker and listener. Unlike most items, shipping and handling are already included in the price.
